“Opening New Doors” educational programs

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – A new educational program offered by the Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services’ Adult Day Service Program aims at providing a well-rounded selection of topics for the educational fun and benefit of Macomb County seniors.

The new program, “Opening New Doors Community Education Program,” will be held at the Macomb County Southeast Health Center Auditorium, 25401 Harper Ave., St. Clair Shores, and will cover various topics each month.

The next meeting will be from 10 a.m. to noon Tuesday, March 9, and will cover “Caregiver Stress: Where Does It Really Come From? How to Live With It!” It will be presented by Mary Robbins who has a master’s degree in Pastoral Ministry.

These programs are free of charge, but registration is required. Supervised care for adults is available during the presentation for a fee of $10. To register, call 586-466-6817.
